To use dialogue in writing.

ASI entered the ^{mysterious} jungle, ~~when I crossed~~ ~~As I entered~~ overgrown trees, I heard rustling

P in one of them. "Hi-Hello?" I said with a quivering voice, while looking at two eyes in the tree. "What are you doing here

P // and why?" said the voice crossly as it dimed down from it. A little girl appeared from the tree as I stared at her. She looked like she lived in the jungle. "I'm Max, im looking for my parents, Frank and Carla Murphy, ^{they're} their archeologists, but have gone missing in here, San Xavier." ~~San Xavier~~

I said with a scared voice. She looked at me ^{with a confused expression} ~~confusindly~~ as if she has never ^{seen a person like me} ~~known me~~ before.

End / lovely.

Remember I'm is short for I am and so needs an apostrophe and a capital letter for I.
